

Advanced Software Engineering Meeting Notes (8 May)

Discussed-

The GitHub required to hold information and logs was created. The markdown dungeon GitHub was forked by all parties so we can begin development. Basic UMLs were created that provide basic understanding on the function of the system.

Tasks –

All people should begin development on their section of the markdown dungeon.